

Bread Puddin' recipe from the famous Bon Appetite'

Here is the recipe for the famous bread puddin' from the famous BA (known to all the non-french-speaking Boonites as the "bawn ap-peh-tight"), from the pen of the famous Monsieur Larry McHugh - the only problem is that he used the famous BA handmade cinnamon rolls (day old) - if you don't have your own then peppridge farm cinnamon bread is a good substitute.

6 beaten eggs add 1 cup of sugar and a pinch of salt. Beat together add 5 cups of milk. Beat together pour into a 1 1/2 quart pyrex glass dish cube 3 slices of good white bread or good cinnamon rolls.
place in dish with the liquid sprinkle with cinnamon on top set dish in a pan (with 1" of water in the pan) to bake at 300 degrees for about 90 minutes or 350 degrees for 60 minutes bake until set firm. test by checking with a knife. the knife should come out clean let cool and serve with real whipped cream

YUUUUUMMMM!
